

I agree with the petition RM-10811. While I do not use the code much since I passed my exams, I have used it in emergency drills when enviromental noise made it impossible for my voice to be heard from my handheld radio. As a woman I found it just as easy to learn as my typing skill.